Access to Information Act

RCMP External Review Committee

Annual Report
2014-15

Report on Access to Information Act 2014-15

1. INTRODUCTION

The Access to Information Act gives the public a broad right of access to information contained in federal government records, subject to certain limited and specific exceptions.

Section 72 of the Access to Information Act requires that the head of every government institution prepare an annual report to be tabled in Parliament regarding the administration of the Act by that institution during the financial year. This report describes how the RCMP External Review Committee administered the Access to Information Act throughout fiscal year 2014-15.

About the RCMP External Review Committee

Established in 1985 under Part II of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police Act, the Royal Canadian Mounted Police External Review Committee is an independent and impartial administrative tribunal which contributes to fair and equitable labour relations within the Royal Canadian Mounted Police. The ERC conducts an independent review of appeals relating to certain conduct measures and of written decisions involving harassment complaints, revocations of appointments, discharges and demotions and ordered stoppages of pay and allowances, that are referred to it pursuant to section 33 and subsection 45.15 of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police Act and section 17 of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police Regulations. Its findings and recommendations are provided to the Commissioner of the RCMP who makes final decisions. The ERC reports directly to Parliament through the Minister of Public Safety and Emergency Preparedness.

2. ACCESS TO INFORMATION RESPONSIBILITIES

Because of the small size of the ERC (less than 10 FTE's) and the small number of requests received, all access to information functions are performed by the Executive Director and the Manager of Corporate Services. The ERC has no regional offices. The ERC processes requests as follows:

- the requested information is identified;
- the requests are examined to determine if they should be transferred to another government institution with a 'greater interest';
- possible exemptions are considered;
- a copy of the non-exempt information is prepared and forwarded to the requester with a transmittal letter; and,
- the requests and all related documentation are filed in the ERC's

ATIP registry.

The ERC relies on existing Treasury Board guidelines regarding access to information.

Public Reading Room

The Access to Information Act requires that institutions maintain a reading room where the public can review records that have been disclosed by the ERC over the past three years. Records are available for review at no charge. Photocopying costs are applied at $0.20 per page. The ERC's public reading room is located at 60 Queen Street, Room 600, in Ottawa and is open from 10:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m., Monday to Friday. Individuals who wish to review records must schedule an appointment with the ERC.

3. DELEGATION ORDER

The Minister of Public Safety and Emergency Preparedness Canada, pursuant to section 73 of the Access to Information Act, designates the Chair, the Vice-Chair and the Executive Director and Senior Counsel of the ERC to exercise the powers and perform the duties of the Minister as the head of a government institution, the Royal Canadian Mounted Police External Review Committee, under certain sections of the Act. Responsibilities associated with the administration of the Access to Information Act include notifying applicants of extensions and transferring requests to other institutions (see Annex A, Delegation Order).

4. ACCESS TO INFORMATION ACT STATISTICAL REPORT

During fiscal year 2014-15, the ERC received 6 requests under the Access to Information Act. The disposition of these requests is as follows:

All disclosed	1
Disclosed in part	0
All exempted	0
All excluded	0
No records exist	3
Request transferred	2
Request abandoned	0
Treated informally	0
Total	6

Disposition of Requests

The ERC transferred 2 requests to the Royal Canadian Mounted Police Access to Information Coordinator because the ERC did not possess the requested information. The applicants were advised accordingly. The disposition and completion time for each request was between one and 15 days.

Source of Requests

Four requests received during the period were from the public. The remaining two requests originated from a business in the private sector.

Consultations from Other Institutions

During the reporting period, the ERC received one consultation regarding formal requests received by another federal government institution. The ERC recommendation in this case was to exempt the information entirely (the recommendation was provided within 15 days).

Informal Processes

Whenever possible, information is provided informally to the public by ERC employees. For example, staff responds to phone calls about the ERC role or procedures. Additionally, the ERC's website serves as a valuable source of information on the ERC program, including annual reports to parliament and financial information. Given the sensitivity of much of the information in the case files that are referred to the ERC, there are few opportunities to disclose other program information informally.

Other Consultations

There were no informal releases of previously released access to information packages during the reporting period.

There were no consultations on Cabinet Confidences under the Access to Information Act or requests sent to the Privy Council Office.

Annex B provides a summarized statistical report on Access to Information Act requests processed by the ERC between April 1, 2014 and March 31, 2015.

Multi-Year Trends

Evaluation of multi-year trends is difficult given the very small number of requests received each year by the ERC. The number and kinds of requests and consultations dealt with by the ERC in 2014-15 were typical and generally consistent with previous years.

5. TRAINING ACTIVITIES

No formal ATI training was provided to ERC staff during the reporting period. Some ERC legal counsel have legal training in ATIP matters as the assessment of some requests may require legal analysis or advice.

Information about the ATI program and activities is routinely circulated to ERC staff in the course of normal operations.

6. POLICIES, GUIDELINES AND PROCEDURES

The ERC did not implement any new or revised access to information related policies, guidelines or procedures during the reporting period.

7. COMPLAINTS/AUDITS/INVESTIGATIONS

The ERC did not receive any complaints and no audits or investigations were concluded during the reporting period. There were no applications/appeals to the Federal Court for fiscal year 2014-15.

8. MONITORING TIME TO PROCESS

Monitoring of the time to process access to information requests during the reporting period was carried out on a case-by-case basis. Time to process requests is also discussed in the responsible management committee when required.
